8 ESSENTIAL BELIEFS THAT SHAPE OUR IDENTITY AS AUTHENTIC FOLLOWERS OF CHRIST

Part 6: Active Influence The Church as God's Agent for Change

The Church was never meant to be just a building, an institution, or a weekly gathering—it was designed to be a movement that transforms lives. The early church gathered around one unshakable belief: Jesus is the risen Christ, the Son of the living God. That belief alone was enough to change the world. When we love, stay connected, pursue unity, and worship together, the Church becomes irresistible—a reflection of God's kingdom on earth.
